

Volunteer Programs:

- Israel Way's Community Involvement (Oranim)
 - Israel Way's Community Involvement program offers you an incredible opportunity to spend 5 meaningful months immersed in Israeli society as a functioning member of the community, and get the real experience of free community involvement. You will be exposed to life in Israel by living among its citizens, volunteering in Israel and working together strengthening your ties with the country and its people. You will not be a tourist while in Israel; you will become part of the family! With our volunteering in Israel based in communities with large immigrant populations, Community Involvement participants will be able to feel the difference they're volunteering has done within the community.

- Otzma
 - Otzma is a 10-month program which gives you the opportunity to have three amazing experiences in one:
 - Live and learn Hebrew in the heart of an Israeli city
 - Serve as a bridge between your Israeli sister city and your home community through meaningful service
 - Intern in a non-profit organization in a major Israeli city developing grass-roots leadership and service skills.

- Israel Pathways – Israel Corps
 - Israel Pathways has a variety of opportunities for everyone, whether you are still in college or a post-grad. (<http://www.israelpathways.com/>)

- Israel Service Fellows (<http://israelservicefellows.org/>)
 - Israel Service Fellows is a 10 month service learning program for a select group of exceptional Jewish college graduates. Israel Service Fellows will work on informal education, community development and empowerment projects and will live and work together in small groups in Akko, Israel. Aside from a service placement, all fellows will receive ongoing professional support, intensive Hebrew training, and trips throughout Israel.

- Israel Service Fellows (ISF) is from September-June and is a service-learning program for college graduates and Israelis ages 21-30 where you will volunteer with at-risk youth in a variety of informal educational placements for 25-30 hours a week. Israel Service Fellows is fully committed to building as inclusive and equitable an Israel as possible. Fellows will provide educational opportunities to Israelis from many backgrounds and will work with Jews, Arabs, Ethiopians, members of the Druze community, and more as part of our commitment to all of Israel's people.
- Cost: $1,000 includes flight, training, housing, monthly cash stipend and other amenities.

- Yahel Social Change Project
 - Yahel Social Change Program is a unique 9-month service learning experience for young adults between the ages of 21 and 27. The program, taking place in Gedera, Israel, combines hands-on volunteer work with in-depth learning and immersion. Yahel participants explore Israel by living, learning and volunteering alongside their peers from the local Ethiopian Israeli community. Yahel and its participants make meaningful contributions to Israeli society by working in collaboration with Friends by Nature - an Israeli grassroots organization working in the Ethiopian community in the fields of community empowerment and education.
